

Removal of Sanctions In Return of the Nuclear Disarmament of North Korea

Sponsors: The United Kingdom, The United States of America, Republic of France

Signatories: The Republic of Korea, Japan

General Assembly,

Preamble clauses

Concerned with international peace and security

Acknowledging the dire need for peaceful negotiations

Implementing the removal of sanctions in direct relation to the advancement of nuclear disarmament in North Korea

Operative clauses

1. Calls for the nuclear disarmament of North Korea, including;
 - a. Cease of nuclear testing for 15 years
 - b. Disarmament of 25% of all nuclear weapons by 2027
 - c. Disarmament of 33% of all nuclear weapons by 2030
 - d. Disarmament of 50% of all nuclear weapons by 2035
2. If Clause 1 is determined to have been completed to the fullest extent;
 - a. Implements immediate amendments to remove export restrictions for the following sanctions, in this order:
 - i. Resolution 2321 (Mineral exports only) if 25% of all nuclear weapons have been disarmed by 2027
 - ii. Resolution 2371 (Oil and Gas) if 33% of all nuclear weapons have been disarmed by 33% by 2030
 - iii. Resolution 2270 (Rare Earth Metals, Gold) if 50% by 2035
3. Calls on member states to blacklist all private companies and individuals found to have supplied North Korea with supplies aiding in their Nuclear program:
 - a. This includes, missile warheads, nuclear materials and intellectual property that can be used to advance their Nuclear technology.
 - b. Policing illicit trade by the permanent five members (United Kingdom, United States, France, Russia, China) that continues to supply such goods to North Korea.
4. Encourages the aid of developing countries in the responsible use of nuclear technology
 - a. Ensure technical assistance and expertise for civilian nuclear energy programs
 - b. Advocating capacity-building programs aimed at training personnel in nuclear science
 - c. Promote regulatory support and oversight mechanism
 - i. Peer-review
5. Suggests the creation of a globally representative task force to administer the distribution of essential humanitarian aid citizens across North Korea.
 - a. Calls on the North Korean Government to allow this task force to operate without obstacles.
 - b. Reinforces that this clause is not tied to any concessions from the North Korean government.